Download Marching bands have changed a lot since the bands of days gone by. In the past marching bands were made up of local high school students who had only played together for one year. These local high school students usually had to buy their own instruments and uniforms, pay for trips to regional marching band camps, and even feed themselves. The bands of today are made up of students from across the state of Michigan and there are even some marching bands made up of students from across the country! These high school bands play as a group for various high school football games and, in some cases, also have a halftime show. Marching bands can get really big. In some cases, the marching band is the largest part of the high school field show. A lot of time and money is put into planning for the halftime show of a football game. All sorts of things have to be planned for. These games can last for over three hours. Many marching bands have multiple bands of different sizes in them. While they are there, the students must act and move like they are in a marching band. They must be on time for practice and they should not miss practice for any reason. They must also play beautifully. So, basically, they have to be in a band for three hours while they are there. While it can be very rewarding to play music as a marching band, it can also be very draining. A lot of marching bands can have anywhere from 55 to 100 players in them. So, being in a marching band can be very hectic and tiring for the students. To make the students' lives easier the band director gets to plan the whole show. This is one of the key aspects of being a band director. There is no way the director of the marching band can play all of the music, make sure it is rehearsed and ready, and also prepare the marching band for the halftime show.

However, the director usually has to put all of this together a lot of the time. As a result, a lot of student's lives are run very smoothly. The director will often plan and lead a rehearsal each week. This can help to get the marching band together and ready for the games. The director will also plan the halftime show as well. The director of the marching band may have little experience with putting on a halftime show. So, it is up to the director to make sure that everything goes the way they plan it. It is very important for the director to be very organized.
